Parents and Guardians are invited to come into school for information about key events in school happening throughout term 2. The information evening will take place in the Library from 15:45	The IGCSE Mock exams will begin with Oral and Practical Assessments from 7th Jan. The following two weeks will focus on the written papers and will prepare students for the intensity of the upcoming exams. Students do not have study leave during this time and it is important that they remain in school even when they do not have an exam to be able to receive support from their subject teachers	Auditions for the summer musical "MULAN" will be held for students in Year 4-6. The roles will be for musicians, choir and dancers.	On Wednesday 14th January there will be a joint primary and secondary coffee morning at 9am in the library to discuss the upcoming Checkpoints. We will look through key points, support that is offered and the road map to the final exams. On Wednesday 28th January, there will be a dedicated secondary coffee morning at 9am in the library to discuss bullying. We will be looking into the identification process, policies the school has in place and the action we take to both prevent and deal with situations that occur in school.
